
MADISON R. DREYER, M.S., CCC-SLP

NEURO-EDUCATIONAL CLINIC
Speech and Language Pathologist (SLP)
Certificate of Clinical Competency (CCC)

ASHA #14381445
ms.dreyer.slp@neuroedclinic.com
www.neuroedclinic.com

Education

Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology

California Baptist University
August 2020

Bachelor of Science in Communication Sciences and Disorders

California Baptist University
December 2017

Professional Experience

Fontana Unified School District

Fontana, CA

Speech Language Pathologist
August 2020-Current

- Managing caseload of 55+ students with articulation/phonology, fluency, receptive/expressive language, and pragmatic needs
- Conducting individualized formal and informal assessments for initial, annual, and triennial IEPs based upon a student's needs and cultural background
- Participating in multi-disciplinary assessments and IEP meetings with related service providers
- Collaborating with teachers, parents, and administrators on student needs and IEP formulation
- Maintaining proper documentation regarding treatment progress
- Providing education, support, and resources to parents, teachers, and other staff
- Billing Medi-Cal for related services: assessments, therapy, and annual reviews
- Drafting and finalizing IEPs using SEIS

The WonderLab

Redlands, CA

Speech Language Pathology Assistant
April 2018-January 2020

- Provided individual speech and language services to children birth through twenty-one years old in the out-patient clinic setting
- Applied Evidence Based Practice (EBP) to individualize treatment for each child to best meets their needs
- Treatment experience includes children with moderate to severe handicaps who have needed behavioral modification strategies in addition to their speech and language goals.
- Participated in co-treatments with other professional fields including occupational therapy, physical therapy, and Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) therapists
- Completed continuing education specific to pediatrics
- Populations that have been served include autism, Lowe's syndrome, profound hearing loss, and multiply handicapped children.

Licenses/Certification

- CA State SLP License # 32635
- American Speech and Hearing Association (ASHA) # 14381445
- BLS CPR Certification; American Heart Association (AHA) eCard # 195506811604
- CBEST – California Basic Educational Skills Test, June 2018
- California Speech Language Hearing Association; Member # 47655